Your Southern Gateway to Business and Leisure

Befitting its status as the Southern gateway to Thailand, Hat Yai is the South's largest and busiest commercial and shopping hub. Among Hat Yai's several attractions is the world's third largest statue of the Reclining Buddha.

Located in the heart of this bustling boomtown is Central Sukhontha Hotel, a sparkling new world of privacy with 238 well-appointed guest rooms and suites, each with a fully-stocked mini-bar, colour television, multi-channel music and IDD telephone.

Apart from 24-hour Room Service, guests have a choice of dining venues: The sumptuous Southern Palace Chinese Restaurant, Saneha Cafe, Lobby Lounge, and the Pool-side Snack Bar. Conference and Catering facilities are easily arranged at the Sukhontha Ballroom, which can seat up to 200 persons, or at the smaller Function Rooms for private meetings and celebrations.

Speedy Business Connections

There is of course the Business Centre where executives can have all their business requirements efficiently processed through up-to-date equipment and top-notch secretarial services together with smooth telecommunications facilities.

Keeping Fit

And at the end of a busy day's work, guests may unwind at the fully-equipped Fitness Centre, Sauna & Gym, take a dip in the Swimming Pool, or even ease the ache out of muscles with a traditional Thai massage.

Unlimited Shopping

Hat Yai's proximity to the Malaysian border has made it an important trading post down through the years. In many cases, it offers a wide range of goods unavailable elsewhere in Thailand.

Guests who wish to go shopping need look no further as Thailand's leading department store, the Central Department store, is right on the premises. Also nearby is the Santisuk Market renowned for its wide variety of electrical goods as well as street stalls selling a rich variety of fruits and other products at attractive prices.

When in Hat Yai, Central Sukhontha Hotel is the place to stay in style - unruffled, unhurried and uncompromising in comfort.
